NOW AVAILABLE FOR REVIEW

Winter Park, FL, December 9th, 2022 - Tyrell Williams announces the publication of The Me That You See, a collection of family and western stories. The collection will release on SmashWords.com for $1.99 on January 1st, 2023

"Seascaped" is the opening story of this collection. Two men who pulled off a high-stakes museum robbery are setting sail on a yacht. But the mood sours fast as they discuss what happened to their accomplices.

"The Me That You See" is about a deceased man attending his own funeral, witnessing his friends and family mourn his loss. But tension brews when his cause of death is brought up during the funeral, inciting high emotions for everyone involved.

The story "BANG" takes place in a saloon out West where Austin, a young sheriff, must deal with an ex-convict his father arrested. Austin must settle the bad blood his father started.
